

Community Development Workers needed

A young church in Toronto is looking to hire two community development workers beginning on June 12, 2023, for 10 weeks (35 hours per week).

Training will be provided on the job.

The workers will help the church research local community needs, with a particular focus on seniors and under-serviced populations, and develop programs that help to meet these needs.

Liberty Grace Church is a young church near downtown Toronto. We exist to invite people into community to introduce people to the beauty of relationship with Jesus.

The positions are funded by the Canada Summer Jobs Grant. Applicants must be between 15 and 30 years old.
