Section 2: Please comment on the following areas of the course:

8) The Professor

Dr. ██████ is a clear communicator and teacher. I appreciate him being helpful to explain problems when we are stuck

Grateful Dr. ██████ was available to respond by email regarding my concerns.

Professor is very knowledgeable

Very earnest and focused in how he want us to be prepared. Gracious in answering our questions

The Professor was very good. He is passionate about the topic and it shows.

Clear and convicting. I appreciate his illustrations and example of how to have a proper theological method.

---

He is up to speed

---

He is very good at his vocation as a Homiletics professor

---

Professor is excellent and lots experience and knowledge for Bible

---

Great teacher! He really helped me understand exegesis of Genesis as well as the vital spiritual aspects. Great academically, and spiritually.

---

He did a great job in his presentations.

---

Dr. ██████ took the time to not only prepare the materials for us, but get to know us and what would serve us as individuals. He exemplified Christian love and mercy even while clearly expecting students to do the work assigned to them, and to do it well.

---

9) The Course Lectures

lectures were adequate for the class sessions

---

He was very enthusiastic about Genesis, and we were all participating which made the class very engaging.

---

Well structured to suit the purpose of the course

---

they were well structured

---

very prepared and presented. It is very helpful.

---

very structured and prepared

---

The lectures were short, helpful and filled with pathos.

---

Content is good, although there could've been better organization with the in-class preaching. I felt that the feedback portion for some was longer than needed and we could've continued on with another sermon or teaching.

---

Straightforward

---

The course lectures were great. Having to read the Hebrew out loud (though I'm sure painful to hear) was actually really helpful for me.

---

N/A

---

Course was well done. There were some areas he focused a little too much such as his example on Psalms 2. There was a lack on how to do systematic theology, though his materials on biblical theology was well done.

---

10) The Readings for the Course

Ample readings. Possibly add a few required readings of a couple other commentators. Ross was great though!

Readings were excellent!

---

Arnold and Choi was brilliantly succinct. And reading the Hebrew Bible text was a joy.

---

They were excellent and such good guiding texts.

---

It is a little too much but the material was very good information

---

Enjoyed the reading. A reading on how to do systematic theology would be helpful

---

It is fair

---

reading were very much adequate and aligned with course structure

---

reading was okay and a bit dense

---

Appropriate

---

Readings were excellent

---

reading were very encouraging and helpful and in line with course structure

---

11) The Assignments

Rigorous but fair.

A good model as to how to study people in the past.

---

it is ok

---

Very fair assignments, however I felt that the research paper only being 5 pages was a little short to develop a strong argument.

---

The assignments were good in allowing us grasp the practicality of this vocation

---

assignments were in alignment with course materials and readings

---

Good!

---

Straightforward

---

These were good.

---

Good!

---

assignments were very necessary to help us grasp the understanding and application of the language of the Biblical texts

---

It is fair to students

---

12) Other suggestions to improve the course

No comments

I learned a lot from this course!

---

Keep it going.

---

more can be done to improve the course

---

There should be more focus on pastoral mentoring to suit the needs of the contemporary church

---

I loved the course. My only suggestion would be to make more time for the Joseph narrative. A suggestion would be to have two courses on Genesis. One on the primeval events, and another on the patriarchal history.

---

Other than the ones mentioned above, nothing else

---

N/A

---

Very well done

---

I'm not sure if Zech 9-10 was my favourite for the purposes of this course. But other than that, I have nothing to suggest for improvement.

---

if the course can be done with some additional days because the lecturer could not adequately get through the course materials within the days allocated.

---

we should open more course like this. It is really helpful for students to understand better for Bible

---
