

2024 SUMMER COURSES

MAY 13-17, 2024 (9:00 am - 4:00 pm each day)

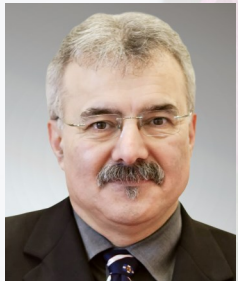

Basic Problems in Christian Counseling

Dr. Todd Hardin | Couns 703/723

This course introduces students to a range of issues commonly encountered by soul care providers in the context of contemporary Christian ministry. In an interactive class format incorporating lectures, case studies, multimedia and group discussions, students will be challenged to think about these issues in both a theologically and psychologically sound manner, and to respond with wisdom and compassion to the special needs of those to whom they minister.

JUNE 4-7, 2024 (6:00 pm - 10:00 pm each day)

Christian Spirituality

Dr. Michael A.G. Haykin | SpEv 303/323

A detailed study of one major tradition of Christian spirituality, namely, that of the British & Irish Particular Baptists in the long eighteenth century. After lectures that sketch the history of Christian spirituality before the emergence of this tradition, the following topics in relation to this tradition of Baptist spirituality are covered: knowing the Triune God and knowing self; the spirituality of the Word; Christ crucified; the indwelling of the Holy Spirit; conversion; prayer; baptism and the Lord's Supper; friendship; political theology and social justice.
