Section 2: Please comment on the following areas of the course:

8) The Professor

Very inspiring, good example as a pastor, a preacher, and a Christian.

clearly designed this course to meet our need

very inspiration, knowledgeable to help

Professor [REDACTED] is the best!

Pleasant, approachable, tough marker-but his comments were fair and accurate. grade papers promptly - which is appreciated.

Excellent

Praise the Lord for Prof. [REDACTED]. I am so grateful for the honor of being Professor [REDACTED]'s student.

Excellent

Professor [REDACTED] was very approachable, fair and professional in his teaching. I could also see that he was extremely prepared and diligent. He was always friendly.

Well informed. His travels, visits to historical sites reinforce the lessons on geographical locations.

Professor [REDACTED] as always been very approachable, patient and personable. Although I was taking this course after having not taken Biblical Greek for a couple years, his patience enabled me to catch up with the content of the course.

Amazing, very well applicated.

Both Professor [REDACTED] and my supervisor, [REDACTED], have been tremendously helpful to me and have provided excellent advice and guidance. I have been greatly blessed by their support, not only academically, but also personally.

9) The Course Lectures

The few times that we gathered for this course have been very illuminating and helpful for knowing how to approach this paper. Witnessing the defences of my fellow students was very illuminating for me and an enriching experience.

The lectures are well paced, timely with breaks.

Excellent

very detailed, to help how to find answer from all materials

Lectures were clear, focused and relevant. Class engagement was good. Overall enjoyable and profitable to understanding the material.

Excellent

Inspiring, helpful, rewarding... Excellent

Full of information, interactive content

I found the lectures very easy to follow and greatly appreciated the course lecture notes, especially when it came to the final exam. I was very blessed and edified by the vivid spiritual approach that Professor Pikkert took to this topic, something that is not easy due to the intellectual content.

The lectures are well paced with breaks.

Rich content presented. I am so blessed by the lectures.

learned a lot from it.

I really appreciated the depth and technicality of the lectures. I found that there was a good balance between class participation and lecturing.

10) The Readings for the Course

All of them were good especially "The epic.."

Excellent

Excellent

Excellent, relevant, beneficial

I really enjoyed John Frame's book, being greatly edified by it, and I found it almost a devotional experience to go through it. The other two textbooks were also very informative and helpful from a practical standpoint.

very good. focus on objectives.

Moreland was an excellent resource. Frame is not as engaging as Moreland but content in Frame was there.

The two textbooks were obviously very helpful and clear for providing guidance in the approach to this paper. I especially have found the TBS Style Sheet to be helpful in that it is concise and clear.

Excellent material presented. It was a bit challenging for me to keep up with readings but it might be just my opinion. Praise the Lord for every single reading material required for the course.

The required and recommended textbooks are in my estimation the best there is. Excellent authors.

Excellent author/s and appropriate.

The textbooks for this course were extremely helpful. DeSilva's book was very important for the assignments, Schreiner and Silva's books are very practical foundationally for future ministry, coming from solid theological viewpoints.

very helpful and enlarged my vision

11) The Assignments

Reasonable

Excellent

Relevant, true to the courses intention. They were reasonable enough not to be over taxing, but challenging enough to encourage growth.

The assignments are just enough and not too overwhelming.

gave us more time and more room to develop observing

Excellent

The workload for this course was very fair, and I found the marking to be fair.

I appreciate that the syllabus indicates what to read and the written assignments are just enough.

Felt like it was necessary

focus on what we need to learn

Excellent

The constant, gradual pace of the course was challenging yet fair. Personally, I do best with courses like this one that enable one to "truck along" with assignments. Had there been a final exegetical paper in this particular course, I think that the workload would have been a bit too much.

To be honest, I think that I was out of my depth and skill with this paper, and this is no one's fault other than my own. However, with the skills, guidance and support that I have received, I think that I am able to pull through by the grace of God.

12) Other suggestions to improve the course

I can't think of anything. I found this course to be a great introduction to this topic, for it presented very well the overall practice of apologetics.

Excellent

Maybe divide it into two (Survey 1 and 2) so students can learn the OT without rushing

Since these courses are available to students who may not be able to attend live, some support from TBS to record the course would be helpful. Ideally, courses could be recorded offline, as this tends to improve the quality of the content. That said, it was a wonderful course, and I feel so blessed

No suggestions.

Well Done!

I can't think of anything. In all honesty, this course has been a huge blessing spiritually. This is due to the primary and rich theological nature of my topic, double imputation, as well as due to the encouraging and solid support that I have received from both professors.

ask more question on class

Excellent

I wish that an example of an essay is given. Also a downloadable copy of the PowerPoint Presentation is available for students. (specially the maps)

I wish I could take one more Homiletics course.

I can't think of anything. This course was very beneficial, and I think that my overall level in Biblical Greek grew quite a bit.
