

To Potential Candidate,

Coram Deo Baptist Church is a reformed, young, growing and vibrant, Bible believing church in Grande Prairie, Alberta. Grande Prairie is the central hub for the Peace Country which includes much of Northern Alberta. The City has roughly 70,000 people and another 20,000 living in the rural areas surrounding. The primary employment industries in the area are oil and gas, forestry, and farming. With the average age in Grande Prairie being 34, there are many young growing families, which is also true of our church body.

Coram Deo meets in a well-maintained building that is surrounded by residential houses and is just down the road from a public school. Normally we see anywhere from 50 – 80 attendees on a Sunday morning for worship and a core group for Sunday School. We are a body that loves to worship together as families. Our Preferred music is rich and deep in its theology from classic hymns to sound contemporary music. We are committed to expository preaching and teaching. The first Tuesday of every month we dedicate to prayer and Bible study. We also have an active men's and lady's ministry, care groups throughout the week, and a few outreach events during the year. We are searching for a full time Senior Pastor and are excited to meet the man that the Lord has prepared for us.
